

Who does God say we are?

This morning we're continuing to look at our identity as humans created by God. We started last week looking at our place in creation and what it means now to be God's ambassador.

This morning, Stuart Checkley is talking more about who God says that we are, and what implications that has for our everyday lives.

Stuart will be referring particularly to the Bible passages below, so have a read through, and let's be praying that God speaks to all of us through what Stuart has to say.

Matthew 16: 15-18

"But what about you?" Jesus said, "who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter answered, "You are the Christ, the son of the living God". Jesus replied, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, for this was not revealed to you by Man, but by my Father in heaven. And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church."

Colossians 3:3

"For you died, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is your life, appears, then you also will appear with him in glory."

Matthew 25: 37-40

"Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you?..." The king will reply, "I tell you the truth, whatever you did for the least of these brothers of mine, you did it unto me."

New Wine

Don't forget to book for New Wine, a week of camping for all the family and a great time to hear from God. There are a whole group of us from CCC going from the 23rd-30th of July, speak to Ian for more details.

Vision Day

"Where there is no vision, the people perish" – A couple of weeks ago Mike talked about this verse from Proverbs and reminded us that what we need is not just 'vision' but 'God's vision' or revelation from him about his heart.

So, we're planning to spend a day on Saturday 5th February praying and worshipping together and hearing God's revelation for us here at CCC and the communities we're part of.

There will be more details next week, but put it in your diary now – Saturday 5th February, 10.00-12.30 & 1.30-4.00 at The Point. Please come for as much of the day as you can – if you can't be there for the whole day, why not aim to come for either the whole morning or the whole afternoon?

Catford Community Church aims to be a place where people can grow and develop to reach their full potential with God's help.

Refreshments are available free after this morning's service; we'd love you to stay and chat.

Regularly at CCC...

Sunday mornings

We hold our main Sunday morning meeting at Holbeach School finishing by 12.15pm. There are groups for children, youth and a crèche for babies.

Small groups

Many people at CCC are also part of one of our small groups, meeting at various times in the week. Every group is different - if you'd like to join one, ask one of the leaders.

Youth

Our youth activities take place on Friday nights at The Point. Fiona Darbyshire is the contact for this group.

All Stars

Our monthly club for all children in school years 1 - 6. Packed with fun, games, stories, prizes, music, crafts, drama... if you've not been, get along soon. Ask Ian Butcher for info, or call the CCC office.

All Stars!

We had a great time yesterday at All Stars, as 38 children had fun drawing trees (see pictures) to make our jungle, running round the hall collecting tails, and hearing about Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego surviving a very very hot furnace in the Book of Daniel!

Please continue to pray for the leaders on the team that they would continue to receive wisdom about how to run the club, and pray that the children who come would have a fantastic time, and bring lots of their friends! If you think you'd like to help at All Stars, or if you know any children in school years 1-6 who'd like to come along, please speak to Ian.

Avaaz

If you are concerned about justice in this world you may wish to consider signing up to receive emails from Avaaz. These usually take the form of an invitation to sign an e-petition on matters relating to justice, freedom, poverty, global warming and similar issues. This is what it says on their web site:

"Avaaz—meaning "voice" in several European, Middle Eastern and Asian languages—launched in 2007 with a simple democratic mission: organize citizens of all nations to close the gap between the world we have and the world most people everywhere want.

Avaaz empowers millions of people from all walks of life to take action on pressing global, regional and national issues, from corruption and poverty to conflict and climate change. Our model of internet organising allows thousands of individual efforts, however small, to be rapidly combined into a powerful collective force.

The Avaaz community campaigns in 14 languages, served by a core team on 4 continents and thousands of volunteers. We take action -- signing petitions, funding media campaigns and direct actions, emailing, calling and lobbying governments, and organizing "offline" protests and events -- to ensure that the views and values of the world's people inform the decisions that affect us all."

When they invite you to sign a petition you are, of course, free to decide if you wish to support a particular issue. Check out their web site, www.avaaz.org/en, and give it some thought.
