

THE CALLING OF MATTHEW

Jess and I have discovered that the religious people called Pharisees were always criticising Jesus. When Jesus called Matthew the tax collector to be his follower, they really had something to say about it.

It all started when Jesus saw Matthew at his tax collection booth one day. "Follow me," said Jesus, and Matthew did just that. That night Matthew invited Jesus and his disciples to be his dinner guests, and they said yes. Find your way through the maze to Matthew's house.

Of course, there were lots of tax collectors and well-known sinners there, and guess what? The Pharisees didn't approve, but Jesus had an answer for them. All the vowels in the following puzzle have been missed out. Look at the key and work out which vowels should go where. Jesus was speaking the truth, but the Pharisees didn't like it.
