

When John the Baptist started preaching he told the people to turn from their sins, turn to God and be baptised.

He preached that someone far greater than him would come and that he would baptise with the Holy Spirit.

And we've found out that John was right. It was Jesus who came, and when he asked John to baptise him, he didn't want to do it. "I am the one who needs to be baptised by you," he said. Jesus replied, "It must be done, because we must do everything that is right."

So John baptised Jesus. And as Jesus came out of the water, the Spirit of God came down from heaven like a dove and settled on him. And a voice from heaven said...

... and I am fully pleased with him.

It was the voice of God, the Father - telling the people that Jesus was his son, that he loved him and that he was very pleased with him!
