

TRIUMPHAL ENTRY

It wasn't just Isaiah who prophesied about Jesus. Zechariah spoke about Jesus' arrival in Jerusalem, hundreds of years before he was born.

Jesus and the disciples came to the town of Bethphage on the Mount of Olives. While they were there, Jesus sent two disciples ahead, saying, "Go into the village over there, and you will find a donkey with a colt beside it. Untie them and bring them to me. If anyone questions you, just say, 'The Lord needs them,' and he will send them right away." This took place to fulfil what Zechariah spoke.

After the disciples found the donkey they did as Jesus said. They brought it and the colt and placed their cloaks on the colt. Many in the crowd spread their coats on the road before Jesus, while others cut branches from trees and spread them on the road. The crowds shouted... unjumble the coats below to find out what it was that the crowds shouted.
