

Jesus used stories to explain his teaching, but people didn't always understand. He said:

This also fulfils what Isaiah said. Fit the right words into the boxes. The verse above will help you.

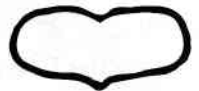

You will hear my  But you will not

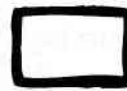

You will see what I do but you will not realise its

For the

And they have closed their

So their eyes cannot

And their hearts cannot understand and they cannot turn to me and let me them.

THE WHEAT AND WEEDS

Here's a story Jesus told.

The Kingdom of Heaven is like a farmer who planted good seed in a field. One night an enemy planted weeds in the wheat. The weeds grew and a servant saw it. "Sir, the field is full of weeds," he said.

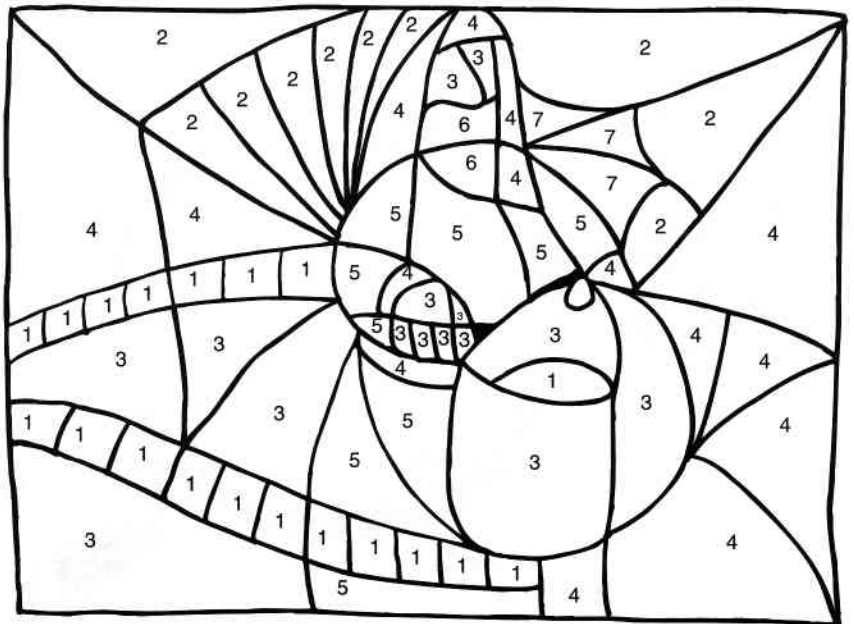

"An enemy has done it," said the farmer.

"Shall we pull out the weeds?"

"No," the farmer replied. "You'll hurt the wheat if you do. Wait until the harvest, and then I will tell the harvesters to sort out the weeds and burn them. Then they can put the wheat in the barn." Jesus explained that he is the farmer who plants the good seed. The field is the world and the good seeds are the people who love God and follow him. The weeds are the people who belong to Satan, the enemy. The harvest is the end of the world, and the harvesters are the angels. At the end of the world, the angels will remove everything that causes sin, and all who do evil, and throw them into hell. Then the godly will shine like the sun in God's kingdom.

THE PARABLE OF THE FISHING NET

Now, take it away Click, for another story onscreen.

The kingdom of heaven is like a _____ that is thrown into the water. When the net is full of fish of every kind, it is dragged onto the shore. Then the good fish is sorted into _____ while the bad ones are _____ away. So it will be at the end of the _____.

The _____ will come and separate the wicked people from the godly. The _____ will be thrown into the fire, where there will be _____ and gnashing of _____.

Can you unscramble the words in the fish? Fill the spaces above with your answers and then you can colour the fish.
